

Banking Guide

A savings account is used for storing money and earning interest.

A chequing account is used for daily transactions such as deposits, withdrawals, and bill payments.

A GIC is a guaranteed investment certificate with a fixed term and usually a fixed interest rate.

A mortgage is a loan used to purchase property.

A personal loan is usually unsecured and can be used for various purposes.

A credit card allows users to borrow money up to a limit for purchases.